International exchange

We are an ambitious and innovative Russell Group university with a bold strategic vision, located in the beautiful, historic and thriving capital city of Wales. With a student population of more than 31,500 including over 8,500 international students from more than 130 countries, we are the 12th largest university in the UK.

Subjects: With 24 Academic Schools, Cardiff University offers a vast number of study options. Our flexible modular system means classes can be chosen from several different subjects including art and humanities, and social, life and physical sciences. This allows students to build study programmes which compliment their home degree.

Our community is inclusive and welcoming with a diverse, multicultural population of both staff and students. Absorb our unique Welsh heritage and culture to enrich your Study Abroad experience in the UK.

“If you’re considering studying in the UK, I highly recommend Cardiff. You’ll have the chance to explore Wales, which is like a hidden gem filled with culture, beauty, and kindness.”

- Meghan, USA

“A very student friendly city. People are kind and there is always something to do around the city with and outside the University. I loved it!”

- Melissa, Mexico
