Summer Session

Program Highlights

- Focus Areas: Culture and History in NYC, Foundations of Pre-Medicine, Public Affairs and Sustainable Futures, Wall Street Prep: Economics, Finance & Analytics.
- Certifications of Professional Achievement (CPA): International Relations, Human Rights, United Nations Studies.
- Language Immersion Programs: French, German, Spanish, Arabic, and Russian, combining classroom learning with cultural experiences.

Summer Financial Assistance Opportunities

- Non-Degree Merit Fellowship: Visiting students enrolled in a Summer Visiting Program or CPA Program who take two or more courses may be considered for a merit-based fellowship of up to $5,000 to help cover tuition. Eligible programs include: Visiting Undergraduate, Visiting Graduate, Visiting Postbaccalaureate, and CPA certifications in Critical Issues in International Relations, Human Rights, and United Nations Studies. Students should indicate interest in the fellowship within the online application.
- Focus Area Ambassadorship: Students enrolled in a Focus Area can help build a summer student community, promote co-curricular activities, and strengthen their resume through public speaking and leadership experience. Applicants must complete their program application, indicate interest in a Focus Area, and upload a resume/CV if not already submitted. Additional details are available on the Summer Session website.

Further details on admissions, deadlines, and tuition are available on our website.

Housing

Columbia University offers on-campus housing for visiting students during the Summer Session and provides resources for exploring off-campus housing options.
